TOURIST AND CITIZENS CLUB ENJOYS PROGRAM BY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

At the regular meeting of the newly organized Tourist and Citizens Club held last Monday, the Chamber of Commerce had charge of the entertainment, and the afternoon was much enjoyed by several hundred persons.

Meeting in the G. A. R. hall at 2 p. m. Monday, the routine business was finished and the meeting turned over to the Chamber of Commerce committee, who rendered a program that included some delightful addresses, good music and singing.

After a song by a male quartette, Mrs. Zimmerman read an original poem dedicated to the tourists, and Rev. Wm. Landiss followed with an address on what the Chamber of Commerce had for its objectives, what it had done and what it hoped to do.

Mayor Porter spoke for the City of St. Cloud assuring the tourists of a cordial appreciation of what their stay among us meant to the city and its people.

Mr. Sam Brammar spoke of the public school, telling of its rapid growth and outlined the plans for building a new high school.

Mr. Hamilton sang a solo which was splendidly rendered, and the High [illegible] Club [illegible] tion.

The closing part of the program in the hall was rendered by the versatile A. S. McKay assisted by Mr. Charles Failes. After the close an invitation was given the audience to visit the Chamber of Commerce room, where refreshments were served by Mrs. M. P. Foster, Mr. A. L. Barlow and J. W. Pickens.

The Club's Press Report

The following report was furnished the Tribune by the press reporter of the Club:

The Tourist and Citizens Club of this city, on the 19th inst., held a large and enthusiastic meeting in the G. A. R. Hall. There were between three and four hundred in attendance.

The meeting was opened by singing "America" and prayer by Rev. Davis. A short business session was then held, after which, President Hall then turned the meeting over to the Chamber of Commerce, which had offered to furnish the program for the occasion and accordingly did so.

The program furnished will be long remembered for its wealth of valuable information, giving our accomplishments, our needs and our advantages. Those giving the program were Rev. Landiss, Mayor Porter, Mr. Brammar, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Zimmerman, High School Glee Club, the Male Quartette and the "gentleman of an amusing farce.

Rev. Landis among other things told of the aims of the Chamber of Commerce, the development of St. Cloud, St. Cloud's hearty welcome to strangers, better entertainment for tourists, St. Cloud booklets, strawberry culture and money made thereby, etc.

Mayor Porter told of the wonderful progress of St. Cloud since its founding in 1911, saying that its progress had not been equaled by any other town or city in the state and that it is our duty to see that its progress continues.

Mr. Brammar, a member of the county school board, gave a very interesting account of the progress of education in our state and county. Among other things he said that there are six counties in the state that have complied with the general requirements of the school law, and that Osceola county, one of the six, has no bonded indebtedness. He also said that our progress is encouraging and that we have eight months school in the grades and nine months for the High School, and eight months school for colored pupils.

After a performance of an amusing comedy all were invited to a repast of strawberries and cream at the Chamber of Commerce room, which had attractive tables awaiting their coming.

STATE SOCIAL SERVICE WORKER SPEAKS MONDAY

By arrangement of Mrs. L. H. Adams, local Red Cross nurse an address to the ladies of St. Cloud will be given by Mrs. Ora Layton, a State Social Service Worker, at the city hall next Monday afternoon March 26th, at 2 o'clock. A special invitation to all ladies of the city is extended to be present and hear this most instructive address.

EAT MORE EGGS TO RELIEVE MARKET CONDITION

Housekeepers attention is called to the fact that at present time the egg supply is so plentiful that it calls for co-operation from every person, as the supply must be consumed to encourage the farmers and chicken raisers to continue to supply the market all the year. There are a great many times during the year that eggs become scarce, and this is largely due to the fact that when people undertake the poultry business they are not given encouragement by continuing to provide a good market for their product

Eggs constitute one of the most healthful items of daily food, and making it a point to use more eggs just now would encourage the farmers to continue the development of this section of the country.

Remember this when you go to the store or market and add a dozen of eggs to your purchases. It will help the whole community and at the same time add to the health of all concerned.

MRS. VEEDER ENTERTAINED FOR BAPTIST CHURCH FUND

Mrs. Mary Veeder, Wisconsin avenue and Eleventh street, held open house on St. Patrick's Day from 2 to 5 p. m. for the benefit of the Building Fund of the Baptist Church.

The predominating color was green, out of deference to the day.

In the serving of the refreshments Mrs. Veeder was assisted by Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Putnam and Mrs. Gregory.

Mrs. Edith Elliott gracefully headed the reception committee.

The attendance was large, and as an addition to the delightful refreshments and the sociability there were on exhibition many interesting curios which the guests greatly enjoyed.

The sum realized for the church fund aggregated $27.15.

MAYOR SOME FISHERMAN

Mayor S. W. Porter proved that he is "some fisherman" Tuesday when he was one of a party spending the day at Lake Lizzie, six miles east of the city and coming home with sixteen fine bass. Mr. Porter was accompanied by his wife and little son, Mrs Porters Uncle J. M. Taylor, and her mother, Mrs. L. M. Goodrich, and H. E. Hedrick. Mr. Porter enjoyed a fine baked fish for supper Wednesday, the largest one in the lot being considered worth saving the head as a trophy which he has had mounted.

OFF ON AUTO TRIP

Frank Frederick, of New York City, Mrs. Helen M. Dixon, Mr. Starr L. Booth of Bristol, R. I. and Mr. and Mrs. C. Webster of Providence, R. I., are this week enjoying a trip along the West Coast stopping at all the points of interest, going as far as New Port Richie. They are making the trip in Mr. Frederick's car.

BUYS 20,000 POUNDS SWEET POTATOES LOCALLY

Persons who do not think there is a local market for good crops in this section will be pleased to learn that C. A. Bailey, one of St. Cloud's local grocers, has just purchased from local farmers 20000 pounds of sweet potatoes. This goes to prove our often made assertion that if persons will raise good stuff, and it is being done, that a market can be found. Mr. Bailey has for some time been working up a wholesale trade in farm products, and this purchase of ten tons of one vegetable at one time from local people shows what an opportunity awaits the progressive farmer in this part of Osceola county.

St. Cloud "Old-Timers"

Editor St. Cloud Tribune:

At your request I am enclosing a list of St. Cloud "old-timers." W. J. STEED SAYS OUR LAKE WILL REMAIN CLOSED TO SEINE FISHING

In answer to the article referring to a proposed local law to license fishing in the lakes of Osceola county, W. J Steed who advertises that he will offer such a license law to the legislature and ask for its passage, sends the Tribune the following information:

March 17, 1923.

Editor St. Cloud Tribune:

I notice an article in your paper under date of the 15th in which you make reference to the special law that I am advertising to have introduced at the 1923 session of the Legislature.

Would like, at the beginning to clear up the uncertainties which you mention in your article.

Of course the notice does not go into detail—the bill does.

The present law governing fishing in Lake Tohopekaliga and East Tohopekaliga will be reenacted and no commercial fishing allowed in either these two lakes. The proposed law will not prohibit the use of artificial spinners, flies and other artificial bait, which is used by our citizens and visitors for sport fishing.

I do not have an extra copy of the law at this time but will very shortly mail you a copy of the proposed law for publication.

Yours very truly ——
W. J. STEED.

ST. CLOUD POST OF THE AMERICAN LEGION WORKING FOR A HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

At a special meeting of the St. Cloud Post No. 80, American Legion, held at post headquarters on the 15th instant the post decided to circulate a petition to the County School Board of this county asking for the call of an election to issue bonds to the amount of $45,000 for a new high school building in St. Cloud.

This action is a continuance of the efforts of the post to create desirable educational facilities locally, in conformity to the National program of American Legion as instituted last December in its "Education Week" as proclaimed and carried out.

The petition names Special School District No. 1, as the area to be bonded. This district consists of a tract of land thirteen and one half miles east and west and twelve miles north and south, a little more than four townships. It is bounded on the west by the canal, the west lake and the Kissimmee river; the northern boundary being the township line north of the city of St. Cloud; the southern boundary being the township line about twelve miles south of the city.

Until the [illegible] there have been five other small schools maintained in this area, all of which were one teacher schools. These small schools did not offer the possibilities of an elementary education for the child such as can be obtained with a like amount of effort in a graded school and the cost of maintainance for the one teacher schools is comparatively larger. As a result, the children from the small schools are now transported to the St. Cloud School, which is the only white school now maintained in the district.

The number of children in attendance at the school at present is many more tha the school was planned to accommodate and the attendance is increasing every year. Th building now in use was built and intended for a graded school building and is entirely unsuited to the needs of a modern high school such as attendance now demands. It is proposed to accommodate the High School and the Seventh and Eighth Grades in the new building, leaving the present building for the use of the grades from the first to the Sixth.

It is an evident fact that should the bond issue be approved or not, some arrangements will have to be made for more room than is available now if the percentage of increase in attendance is shown next year as it has in the past. This would necessitate expenditures for rent and equipment that would not bring tangible assets to the school, and if from a point of economy alone, the bonds should be voted.

St. Cloud should feel proud of the school growth shown during the past few years and not hesitate to aid in the future development of the equipment needed to properly educate the children of this section. So when the Legion men call at your home, if you are a qualified freeholder voter, add your name to the list of names already secured and thus lend your support to this great movement.

If anyone has questions to ask or desire information regarding the matter of voting the bonds, or on school conditions locally, kindly mail your questions to the "Legion Editor" care of the Tribune, and the information you desire will be secured and published in next weeks issue.

BOY SCOUTS ASKED TO REGISTER ON 30TH

All Boy Scouts of St. Cloud Troop No. 1. are requested to register again on Friday evening March 30, and all those who fail to do so will be dropped from the membership rolls.

The local troop will be three years old on April 1, and it is desired to revise the list of those who have been called members, so that the new year may be started with an active list of hustling scouts.

STATE SENATOR VISITS CITY

State Senator M. W. Overstreet, of Orlando, was a pleasant visitor in St. Cloud Monday, interviewing the voters of this city with a view to ascertaining their views on proposed legislation that may come before the next session of the legislature, which convenes April 2. Mr Overstreet represents the Nineteenth Senatorial District of Florida, composed of Osceola, Orange and Seminole counties, and is preparing to leave for the state capital the last week in this month for the bi-annual session of the legislature. Mr. Overstreet has always been a keen observer of the needs of the people and his visit here to learn the views of this city is in keeping with his record of serving the people of the district he represents.

ENJOY GATHERING AT JOYLAND BEACH

The members of the Universalist congregation, together with many of their friends were given a reception at Joyland on Tuesday evening.

The host and hostess were Dr. and Mrs. Gregory and Emma Kochersperger, of Boston.

Between conversation, laughter, old fashioned dancing and refreshments an all-round good time was had, and just before midnight everybody went home feeling that they had had a most enjoyable evening.

COMING BACK NEXT YEAR

Mr. S. W. Valentine, of Mapleton, Iowa, left Monday for his former home, after spending a pleasant few weeks in St. Cloud, and was so well pleased with the city that he plans to return next season and bring his family.

FINED FOR FIGHTING

J. E. Long, Dewey Padgett and Farris Richards were called before Mayor Porter Monday on charges of fighting and were fined $15 and costs in each case. Each pleaded guilty. The scrap occurred near the postoffice on Saturday night.

MRS. HANSCOM WILL RETURN HERE ON APRIL 17

In order to give the hundreds of people in St. Cloud who missed the rare treat of hearing Mrs. Florence Gilbert Hanscom last Thursday evening an opportunity to enjoy this high class entertainment arrangements have been made by the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce for a return engagment on April 17. Tickets will be placed on sale soon, and no one who did not hear Mrs. Hanscom last week should not fail to attend the next recital here.

FOUR I'S AND MID-WEST HELD REGULAR MEETING

The regular meeting of the Four I's and Mid-West Union was held in Odd Fellows Hall March 12th. The meeting opened by singing America. Prayer was offered by Chaplain Rev. Silas Cooke. Minutes of last meeting and the treasurers report were read and approved. A motion was made and carried, instructing the treasurer, on adjournment of the meeting to take all members present to the ice cream parlor and treat them to ice cream and wafers.

A program was then rendered as follows:

Music by Mr. Severn on violin and Valentine at piano.

Original poem by Mr. Walker entitled "The Market in St. Cloud."

Music by Mr. Valentine on harp and mandolin at same time.

Music by Messrs Severn and Valentine, piano and violin.

Reading, "Raising of your Pay," by Mrs. Sharp.

Reading, "The Tents of Freedom," an original poem by Rev. Silas Cook.

Under new business a picnic was planned for March 26th at the Joyland Beach boat house. All members are invited to be present with well-filled baskets of good things to eat. Dinner at noon.

The meeting adjourned after singing "Blessed Be the Tie that Binds." All then repaired to the Rummel Ice Cream Parlor where all were served in fine shape.

MRS. A. SHARP, Secy.

ANOTHER BOOST FOR "GRANDMA'S BOY"

The Tribune prints a weekly program for the Princess Theatre of Troy, Ala. Not many pictures are shown in a town the second time, but next week the Priess will have a special return showing of Harold Lloyd in "Grandma's Boy." The programe states "This is the cleanest and most delightful comedy of the past year and it should be your aim to come and have a good laugh.

"Grandma's Boy" will be shown at the Palm Theatre, St. Cloud, March 27 and 28, benefit the American Legion and Auxiliary.

Auxiliary Supports Garden Week Movement

Indianapolis, Ind.—Miss Wetherholt, national secretary of the American Legion Auxiliary has announced that the Auxiliary has accepted an invitation to take part in the "Garden Week" movement. This movement is sponsored by the General Federation of women's Clubs, and will be set aside by presidential proclamation to take place during the week of April 22 to 28.

Legion To Support New Veterans Bureau Head

Washington, D. C.—Support of Brigadier General Frank T. Hines appointed head of the United States Veterans Bureau, was pledged by Alvin Owsley, National Commander of the American Legion, in an address before the National Press post of the Legion here.

"The Legion had no candidate for this important position," he said, "and it hopes that the administration of General Hines will be a complete success in every way. The Legion promises to cooperate and hopes to assist him in solving the different problems which confront him. It will deal with him fairly openly and honestly at all times, but at no time will it forget the interests of the ex-service men whose welfare the new director is charged with supervising.

Legion Promotes Friendship Between Nations

Indianapolis, Ind.—More is being done by the American Legion to promote friendly feeling between the U. S. and [illegible] than [illegible] any other agency, [illegible] Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant of the Legion who has just returned from a visit to Panama and Cuba. Mr. Bolles quotes the president of Panama, Dr. Porras, as saying that he believes the Legion is largely responsible for the continued feeling of good will between the two nations.

Mr. Bolles visited the posts of the Legion both in Panama and Cuba while on the trip. He reported that the functioning of the Panama department of the Legion is being duplicated by Cuba in its departmental work. The Legion posts in both of these countries, Mr. Bolles states, are vital factors in the community life. Excellent relations with the local and government officials have been established in every case, he says. The Legion has assumed the job of maintaining friendly and sympathetic relations between the countries in which posts are established and the United States and is succeeding admirably. Mr. Bolles reported.

he was cordially treated. Receptions and banquets were given in his honor and the President of Panama, the America minister and the governor of Arcolmeme, at Colon, all received and entertained for him and Mrs. Bolles, who accompanied him. He said that the foreign officials especially were kind to him and that they spoke highly of the Legion.

To Administer Fund For For Decoration of Graves

Indianapolis, Ind.—The fund of $100,000 to be raised by the American Legion as a permanent endowment fund to decorate the graves of the American soldiers who died in Europe, will remain in the United State and will be administered by a committee appointed under the supervision of the Legion, Lemuel Bolles, Legion national adjutant has announced. The money will be raised by contributions from the 11,000 Legion posts in the country and added to an amount already donated for the same purpose by private bequests.

National headquarters of the Legion have been advised that there now are 32,160 graves of American soldiers who died abroad in the service of their country. Of these, 31,400 are in France and Belgium, 140 in Scotland, 40 in Ireland and one sailor is buried in Spain. Although the government of the United States has established cemeteries for its soldier dead the Legion feels that it would be a fitting tribute to these heroes for representatives from among their former comrades at arms to visit the graves on Memorial Day each year. It is to this purpose that the income from the endowment fund will be dedicated.

The national treasurer of the American Legion, Robert H. Tyndall, will be the immediate recipient of the donations. It is hoped that the fund will be completed in time to be available next Memorial Day.

Veterans Aided By Passage of Sweet Bill

Washington.—Ten thousand veterans of the World War suffering from tuberculosis, now without government aid will be benefitted by the passage of the Sweet bill, according to Alvin Owsley, national commander of the American Legion. In a recent investigation, the Legion found that 5000 of these men many of them accompanied by their families are now destitute in the West where they have wandered in an effort to recover their health.

Under the provisions of the bill just passed by Congress, the term of years during which a veteran's disability is said to have resulted from service, is so lengthened that practically every one of these men may be classified. In many cases extension of the insurance privileges is granted. Tubercular and neuro-psychiatric diseases resulting within three years after discharge will be considered as due to his service, and render the soldier eligible for hospitalization and compensation.

The bill further provides that $100 will be paid by the government for funeral expenses of soldiers who leave insufficient property to care for expenses contingent to burial. The bill also provides that all hospitals under jurisdiction of the Veterans Bureau used by the government, will be thrown open to veterans of the Civil and Spanish American Wars [illegible] transportation costs to these hospitals.

When the American Legion had concentrated every effort for the passage of this bill, National Commander Owsley was ready to start on a tour of West Virginia but was forced to relinquish these plans in order to join the fight for the bill before the adjournment of Congress. He made an eleventh hour appeal, before a gathering in Washington prior to its passage, in which he declared that thousands of these men would die before the opening of the next Congress if the bill was not passed before the close of the session just past. This action is said to have had considerable influence on consideration of the bill.

Powell Opposes German Propaganda

Indianapolis, Ind.—Mass meetings protesting the action of France in invading the Ruhr valley in an attempt to force Germany to pay the reparations agreed upon at the Versailles parley, which have been held in all parts of the country were branded as new efforts to build up pro-German propaganda in this country by Garland W. Powell, director of the American Legion national Americanism commission, in a recent statement.

"The French invasion of the Ruhr is just," said Mr. Powell, "and should have the support of all her former Allies. America sent her soldiers to fight for right, justice and freedom. To that end the war was fought to a finish. The result was the treaty of Versailles, which was signed by Germany. Is that treaty to be another scrap of paper?

"One reason that the United States entered war was the German Government's utter disregard of treaties honorably made between Germany and other countries. That is one of the reasons that many America families are today suffering the loss of their loved ones. Were those boys' lives sacrificed in vain? Are we going to break faith with those who died in order that treaties should be more than scraps of paper?

"The American Legion is wholeheartedly in favor of France's stand because we know that Germany is doing everything in her power to break faith with the world as she did before. Germany today has big credits in our country. The German people, after going before notary publics and having American and other securities sworn to, burn them up and send the sworn statement to this and other countries and have new certificates issued, which are held in the place burned so as to prevent the Allies from collecting. France was devastated—she is taking a just and right stand in her Ruhr policy. The American veterans are solidly behind France.

"The propaganda that is now being spread in our country about how Germany can't pay, is 'rot.'"

GOVERNMENT ENCOURAGES ECONOMY AND THRIFT

A very attractive booklet issued by the U. S. Savings System tells what the Government is doing to encourage the people to practice economy and thrift. About twelve years ago the Postal Savings System was established, chiefly for the benefit of the foreign born who would trust their savings only to the Government for safekeeping. During the war the national savings movement grew in importance when war savings stamps and certificates were sold to persons of small means who wanted a safe investment and who patriotically wished to meet the requests of the Government for money to carry on the war. But these savings securities were not adapted to after war conditions, and a new method to carry on the savings movement was devised. The Government Savings System was re-organized and Treasury Savings Certificates were issued to take the place of war savings securities. New life was injected into the system and it is now working upon broad lines. It is conducting a campaign of education to teach the people to save; to have them avoid the swindling operations which take hundreds of millions of hard earned money from them; and, it is offering for sale a sound, safe and convenient form of investment in denominations within the reach of all, and which are fully explained in the booklet.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

GEORGE BERNARD SHAW IN INTERVIEW SAYS WE SHOULD ABOLISH POVERTY

TELLS WHY IMPOVERISHED AND WEAK SHOULD BE KILLED IF CIVILIZATION IS TO SURVIVE.

London, March 20—"Why do you think poverty must be abolished, Mr. Shaw? The churches declare 'Blessed are the poor.' Another common ophorism is that 'God made both rich and poor,'" was asked the renowned Fabian and dramatist.

Pat came the reply: "I dislike poverty, and notice that my feeling about it is shared to the extent that everybody who can avoid it does so even at the cost of committing any atrocity that is not technically criminal.

"The church, giving the Apostolic succession and very little else to its unfortunate curates (not to mention many of its bona fide clergymen), naturally proclaims them blessed.

"The aphorism that God made both rich and poor is a lie. Naked we came into the world and naked we go out of it. If we choose to rob one another in the interval that is not God's fault. It might as well be said that God made archbishops and burglars as a justification of burglary."

"In the preface to your play, Major Barbara, entitled 'First Aid to Critics,' written in 1905, you asked with the utmost gravity and the deepest sense of responsibility, would not an habitually poor man do ten times less harm as a prosperous burglar, incendiary, ravisher or murderer, to the utmost limits of humanity's comparatively negligible impulses in these directions than by living contentedly in his poverty? Do you still hold this view?"

"Yes."

Poverty As Destructive As Influenza Epidemic

"In the preface to Major Barbara you also wrote: Suppose we were to abolish all penalties for such activities, and decide that poverty is the one thing we will not tolerate—that every adult with less than, say, £365 a year, shall be painlessly but inexorably killed and every hungry, half naked child forcibly fattened and clothed, would not that be an enormous improvement on our existing system which has already destroyed so many civilizations and is visibly destroying ours in the same way?"

"Can you improve on this proposition?"

"No. Why not ask me 'Why influenza should be avoided?' or 'Why Hell should be considered as an undesirable residence?' as inquire 'Why poverty must be abolished?'

"Security, the chief pretence of civilization, cannot exist where the worst of dangers, the danger of poverty, hangs over everyone's head, and where the alleged protection of our persons from violence is only the accidental result of a police force whose real business is to force the poor man to see his children starve, whilst idle people spend fortunes in killing themselves with drugs and overfeed pet dogs with the money that might feed and clothe them.

Poverty As Stupid As Cause of World War

"There is nothing to be compared, not even the thoughtless wickedness which inspired and brought about the war, to the stupid levity with which we tolerate poverty as if it were either a wholesome tonic for lazy people or else a virtue to be embraced as St. Francis embraced it. If a man is indolent, let him be poor. If he is addicted to the fine arts or to pure science instead of to trade and finance, let him be poor. If he is not a gentleman, let him be poor. If he chooses to spend his urban war time wage of £2 a week or his agricultural twenty-five shillings a week on his beer and his family instead of saving it up for his old age, let him be poor. Let nothing be done for 'the undeserving.' Let him be poor. Serve him right! Also—somewhat inconsistently—blessed are the poor.

"Now what does this 'let him be poor' mean? It means let him be weak, let him be ignorant let him become a nucleus of disease. Let him be a standing exhibition and example of ugliness and dirt. Let him have rickety children. Let him be cheap and let him drag his fellows down to his price by selling himself to do their work. Let his habitations turn our cities into poisonous congeries of slums. Let his daughters infect our young men with the diseases of the streets and his sons revenge him by turning the nation's manhood into scrofula, cowardice, cruelty, hypocrisy, political imbecility, and all the other fruits of oppression and malnutrition, which characterize a C.3 nation. Let the undeserving become still less deserving; and let the deserving lay up for himself, not treasures in Heaven, but horrors in Hell upon earth. This being so, is it really wise to let him be poor?"

The march of events has not caused Shaw to change his opinions.

THE ALCOVE CONFECTIONERY

A Bigger and Better St. Cloud

By L. M. PARKER
President Chamber of Commerce

The writer has been asked to contribute an article for publication from the standpoint of the Future for St. Cloud or from a business standpoint as viewed and considered by the Chamber of Commerce.

St. Cloud in our opinion has reached one of the most critical times in history. Many important things are soon to confront us for consideration that will require an expression of our confidence in its growth and development. What would you have St. Cloud to be ten years hence? Draw on your imagination and see if you can picture a city of five, seven, or even ten thousand population. We all want to see just that thing and we will see it—but when? We will realize just such growth as fast as we plan and are able to take care of a city of that importance.

All that will be required is for business firms and individuals to join hands and commence planning NOW, for such development. It CAN be done. It will require co-operation and care-taking along with the expenditure of some time and money.

First of all to be considered is our attitude toward the great number of tourists that visit us annually during the winter season. We are not only the "Wonder City" but we are rapidly gaining the reputation as the "Friendly" city. That is the best recommendation that can go back to northern people from Florida. Following the glad hand, comes the question of amusement while our friends are here. It is time to provide and maintain a permanent playground, furnishing all the games and sports that will be necessary to please all visitors. Why try so hard to please the tourist? Here is the secret. You need not tell them. They come here to spend the winter and return. Some are well pleased with the people the climate and the city and buy property and remain, or "go back home" to close up their business matters and come back. Those who do not buy come back the second winter and that settles it. They will be here to stay,—providing? Providing we give them a hearty welcome and make them feel that we mean it.

There is an easy way to send them out o four city and community. Just give them to understand from your treatment that all they have that you care for, is their money and "what you can get" out of them. We have, along with all other towns, a few such citizens. Just line up the fellows who say "let all the rest of the world go to the dogs just so I get rich," and you have the fellows number. You will not find that person's name on the membership roll of the Chamber of Commerce. You will not find him "boosting" for St. Cloud or anything but SELF. Such are mighty scarce in St. Cloud and thats why we are most optimistic for the Bigger and Better City.

St. Cloud has more and greater natural resources that will add to its rapid growth and development, than any other city in this section of the country. All of these are being developed and advertised as rapidly as the Chamber of Commerce can get the means and time to develop. Every boost for St. Cloud is a boost for every person living in or near the city. Every boost for St. Cloud will in a measure, and a marked measure, increase the value of every foot of real estate in or near the city. The day of "cheap" properties in St. Cloud is rapidly passing away. Values will advance with the bigger and better St. Cloud. Is this your sentiment? If so get back of the program. We have 58 members now and we should have more than double that number that we might do more than double the amount of advertising and boosting for the city of our choice and that we have learned to love.

It would be impossible at this time to go into details regarding the resources and plans to build up our city. Next week, we would be glad to occupy this space for a continuation of this story, should the Editor be kind enough to wish us to do so. But first of all, we must all get together, hand in hand, shoulder to shoulder, if we wish to see things moving onward as rapidly as we at this time are hoping.

Our slogan this month should be, "Double the Membership of the Chamber of Commerce."

HAROLD LLOYD IN "GRANDMA'S BOY"

HAROLD LLOYD WILL BLUSH WHEN HE SEES THIS FROM AL JOLSON, THE BROADWAY STAR

Interview New York World, Sunday, August 27, 1922.

"Grandma's Boy is the greatest comedy picture I ever saw, and I've seen them all," declared Al Jolson, arriving back in New York from Los Angeles the other day. "Just to show you what I thought of it:

"I went to California expecting to make some pictures of my own. I saw Harold Lloyd at the Symphony and—well, I got cold feet. That line of Pope's came to me, the line about fools rushing in where angels fear to tread, and I beat it back to New York without daring to look a camera in the face. I had a long, hard, hot dusty trip across the mountains and deserts but it was worth it all—just to see 'Grandma's Boy.'"

One of the reviewers wishing to pay Mr. Lloyd a particularly high compliment, has referred to him as the Al Jolson of the pictures," the interviewer reminded him.

"I wish I were worthy to have my name linked with him in that way," the Broadway idol responded, modestly. "I'll tell you honestly and truly, my ambition now is to be called the Harold Lloyd of the stage."

Up to August 10th, 325,000 paid admissions had been taken in at the Symphony Theatre, Los Angeles, to see "Grandma's Boy."

This wonderful picture will be shown at the Palm Theatre March 27 and 28, Benefit of the American Legion.

The Crucifixion of Christ

By REV. WM. WESTOVER

If Christians and nominal Christians would leave off the rounds of pleasure that have prevailed more or less in the last five weeks of Lent and in Holy Week, and and meditate on the chapters of the Gospel giving accounts of the suffering and crucifixion of Christ as easily found in the Episcopal Prayer Book, commencing on page 97 and ending at Easter Evening, page 124, they would certainly exclaim that they were records and events belonging to a super-human being.

The lives of great men such as Washington, Lincoln and others, are as nothing in comparison to the life of Christ. A great many poor mortals think more of men, who have fought and won through the cruelties of war than He who came to enlighten mankind and bring us out of a savage and heathenish state as were the Druids, the Celts, the Saxons and others of old, from whom we are descended.

It is our Christianized forefathers who have given us a country with laws and Christian enlightenment which make us in a great measure far superior to savages and heathens. It is the neglect and disregard of the teachings of Christ that so much sin and evil exists.

We think a great deal of our Revolutionary Fathers who fought and won the victory over a foreign power; but how much more should we think of Christ the Messiah, who came into the world to extricate us from the coils of a low-down state to the glorious sons of God. It is only by the elevating spiritual powers and influence of Christ's life and teachings that we have become freed from savagism and heathenism and so should Christ be the only hero of our adoration and love. He died for us that we might live. Let us not think that we can live without Him, as He is the light of the world. Without Him the world is dark. Without Him no hope of the resurrection and ascension into the heavens.

AUTOCASTER

THE MODERN NOVEL

The modern novel is a modern menace to modern youth. The so-called literati are objecting to censorship of their novels and productions. They must submit to censorship or to complete extinction. The people are not going to tolerate such infamous, insinuating, disgusting piffle.

Men are writing who are evidently under some other spell than that of a moral conscience or a sense of their responsibility. They are writing solely for the dollars they receive.

No man of brains with a heart and soul in him would attempt to turn out two or three books a year.

The novels that are being written deserve harsh words—words that would put them in a classification where disgust could properly be expressed. They are unfit for the women and children of today to read. They are doing more than any other agency to corrupt womanhood, to destroy youth, and to lionize men who ought to be in the sulphuric regions of condemnation.

Reputable publishers ought to refuse their manuscripts, reputable book houses ought to refuse to sell their screeds, and righteous parents ought to forbid their children reading such filth.

The modern novel is a menace to home, to youth, to conscience, and to the development of character.

The United States is still paying pensions to seventy-three soldiers who fought in the war with Mexico.

TWO KINDS OF FOLKS VISIT FLORIDA: MICHIGANDER TELLS OF BOTH VARIETIES

The following bits of verse were written by Mr. D. L. Smith, who came here from Battle Creek, Mich. to spend the winter and were read at the all-day picnic of tourists at the Shaker Colony last week.

THE FLORIDA KNOCKER

When the Lord made this great world of ours
The water and the land,
He found he had left over
A great quantity of sand;
He could find no one to take it
And at last became so frantic
That he dumped the stuff down here,
Between the Gulf and the Atlantic.

When the U. S. A. Discovered it
They thought it quite a find;
So they're using it for convicts
And for those of feeble minds
The soil grows bigger babies
Alligators and sich;
While the sand-fleas and jiggers
Give you seventeen year itch,
When you reach this benighted land
You're sure to strike some fakir
Who'll try to sell you worthless sand
For a hundred plunks per acre.
They'll brag about its wonderous strength
But I'll tell you on the level—
The soil's so poor, they have to
Fertilize to raise the devil.

There is one momentous question
That the tourist must decide,
As he scratches 'till the red blood
Slowly trickles down his hide;
And that great, perplexing question
Which you all know to be true,
Is whether you've got the jiggers—
Or the jiggers have got you

There's from three to fifteen churches
In every cross-roads town
You can bet the folks in Florida
Don't turn religion down.
They are all full of the spirit—
Yes, you may be sure of that,
Of course they may forget to pray,
But they always pass the hat.

There are fourteen hundred miles of coast
Around this bunch of sand;
And half as many places where the Cuban hooch-hounds land
I'm sure these good Floridians
All keep the golden rule;
But I'd like to see the city
Where you can't buy Old White Mule.

Then, hip, hurray; hip hurray;
We're leaving Florida today,
We pity those, who have to stay
In the deadest spot in the U. S. A.

THE FLORIDA BOOSTER

When the Meadows of the Northland
Are all buried 'neath the snow,
And the cold wind whistles
Through the leafless trees;
There's a spot way down in Dixie
Where the tourist loves to go
And bask in the sunshine
'Mid the orange trees;
Way down in Florida.

There the singing of the darkies
In the cotton and the corn,
And the lowing of the cattle
On the lea;
There the sweet notes of the mocking bird
Will wake you in the morn
From his perch upon the Sweet Magnolia tree.
Way down in Florida.

Down where the golden oranges
And the sweet potatoes grow
Where the Paw Paw and Banana
Always thrive;
Where the strawberries are luscious
As the tourists all must know;
Ande we feel it's surely
Good to be alive.
Way down in Florida.

Where the fragrance of the Orange Blossoms
Floats upon the air,
And the wild jessamine
Adds its sweet perfume,
And the vines within the jungle,
With their flowers so rich and rare,
Have a fragrance that no other
Can assume.
Way down in Florida."

Where the people bid you welcome
And extend a helping hand
[illegible]
Amusements by the score;
And you're sure to get your shoes
So full of Florida's white sand,
That you'll boost for Florida—
Forevermore.

When Eve ate that first apple
It made her want more clothes;
And many girls in our day
Need apples just like those.

Sweden is the healthiest country in the world, say the statisticians.

ANNA ELIZABETH BORDNER

Anna Elizabeth Herr Bordner, beloved wife of Lieutenant Wm. H. Bordner, passed out Saturday evening, March 17 1923, at her home, 5th and Massachusetts avenue, at 8:40 p. m. She was a direct descendent of Rev. Hans Herr of Switzerland, he having located in Lacaster, Pa., in 1709 and he was a direct descendent of the Schwabish Knight Hugo or Lord of Bliried.

Mrs. Bordner has been a patient sufferer for years and during her last illness became totally blind. She was surrounded by her loved ones, the youngest of her children being absent, John Bordner, who went to the Phillipines during the Spanish-American War in 1898.

The services were held in the G. A. R. Hall Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. by Rev. Wm. Lasslies. "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Face to Face" were sung by Miss Kittie Clausen and Mrs. Gould.

Present at the services were: W. H. Bordner, for 58 years companion of the departed; daughters, Helen Ellis, of East Aurora, N. Y.; Cora Gudikunst, Akron, O.; son, Wm. H. Bordner, Akron, O.; son-in-law, John Gudikunst and sister, Mrs. Clara Lichty, of Reading, Pa.

The many floral offerings proved the love and esteem in which was held.

Burial occurred in Mt. Peace Cemetery with Ebelstein Brothers in charge of the arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Bordner came to St. Cloud April 8, 1910. They conducted a five and ten cents store on New York avenue for several years.

"We shall miss thy kind and willing hands,
Thy fond and ernest care.
Our home is dark without thee
And we miss thee everywhere."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kind assistance rendered to us in our recent bereavement; also for the use of autos and floral tokens of sympathy.

MR. WM. H. BORDNER.
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gudikunst.
Mr. Wm. H. Bordner, Jr.
Helen Ellis.
Clara L. Lichty.

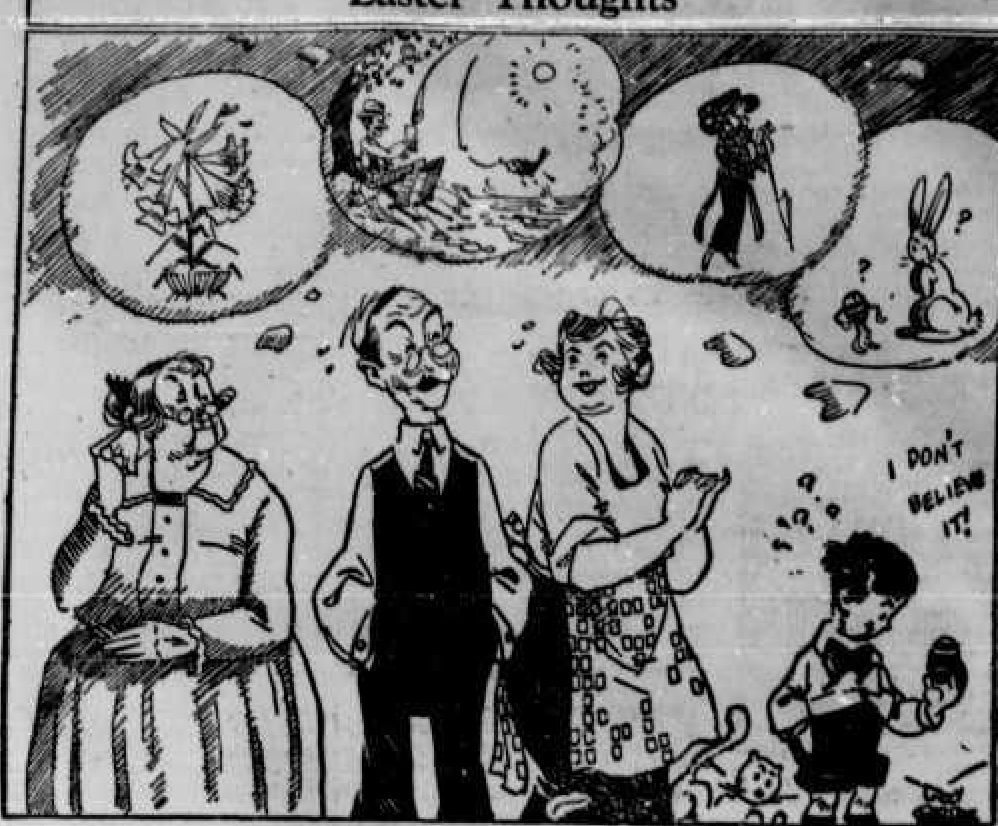
Easter Thoughts



Richard Lloyd Jones Says

DETERMINATION IS A PRICELESS ASSET

Singleness of purpose is the foundation of all success. It is the man who knows exactly what he wants and insists on getting it who usually gets it.

We are too prone to look upon money rather than mind as our goal. Money harms only the man who has not learned to help himself.

It is the mind that mints money. Money never makes mind.

To be born with a silver spoon in your mouth is not a handicap unless you let the spoon gag you.

Poverty is not a virtue. It is nothing to brag about. It is an asset only as a compelling power to drive you out of it.

The poets praise a false philosophy when they sing of the glory of poverty. Be honest and admit it is a glory nobody wants. Everybody who is covered with that glory is trying to get rid of it. The whole struggle of the world is to scramble away from it. It is a hideous thing.

But the test of men comes not while enmeshed in poverty but when freed from its fetters.

The man who doesn't know what to do because he has no money is hardly less well off than the man who doesn't know what to do because he has money.

The young man who facing life has to be fed and clothed by a rich parent may command a measure of thoughtless envy but he commands no more of the world's admiration than the young man who has to be clothed and fed by charity.

It's the man who stands alone and does not use others as a crutch to hold him up who commands respect. It is the man who has found how to help others in the march through life, who wins the admiration of others.

Youth's problem is not what are you starting but where are you starting for.

Your fortune depends not upon what you have in hand but what you have in your head.

Real nobility is the fruit of heart culture, no less than head culture, and your heart grows big only as you force it into the affection of other hearts.

Determination is a richer asset than dollars. It is the one indispensable tool that is needed for the successful completion of every job you may desire or are compelled to tackle.

Emerson reminded us that "keeping everlastingly at it brings success."

Determination forces you over the road of concentration. Concentration is the forces of intellect thrown like the searchlight upon just one thing and held there.

The searchlight gets control of all the rays of light and purposefully directs them.

Concentration is the control of the cultivated mind.

Nobody cares whether Lincoln or Edison, Emerson, McCormick or Agassiz had a bank account because everybody knows they had a brain account. They cultivated and concentrated their brains upon a great determination to do something so well worth while that they rose above the poverty, above fickle fortune into the indestructible wealth of the world.

HOMEY PHILOSOPHY for 1923

WHEN a fellow's late for business and offers as an excuse the fact that he put his teeth in water which froze in the night and so it took him ten minutes to thaw them out before he could eat his breakfast, it speaks well for his imagination, and maybe better for his sense of humor. What's more, we can all laugh. But when the laugh is ended we come to see that excuses are poor crutches on which to lean. That chap grows who, when wrong, admits it. Excuses are ugly patches on an ill-fitting suit that can be made quite dapper if its faults are seen and a hitch taken in here and there.

Poem by UNCLE JOHN

OUR HOSSLESS HOMES

Smith has got a souper-six, and Jones has got an eight; Brownson keeps a four-sedan a-standin' by his gate. . . . Biggs has got a tourin' coup, an' Baggs has got a truck,—Jeffson sez the 'Lectric is the finest job he's struck. . . . The butcher drives a roadsterette, that's playin' hell with gas; The grocer drives a limousine that chokes ye, as they pass! The barber puts his surplus in a seven-seated bus, O, everybody's got a boat, and that's includin' us! Granny steers her chummy-car with doors of bevel plate. . . . Baby wants a winter-Ford—he'll have it, sure as fate! Sister—she's the suffragette—that lives on rubber tires—bound to have an auto-hearse, the minnit she expires! Makes a feller figger like he never done before—what we might amount to, if we weren't so beastly poor!

RULES GOVERNING THIS CONTEST

This contest will appear every Thursday for the next 7 weeks. In one of the advertisements on this page a word has been intentionally misspelled. To find it read every ad. very carefully.

A five-word slogan must be sent in when sending in return answer. A slogan can be sent in for any of the advertisers represented in the contest.

But one answer blank will be allowed to be filed from any one family each week.

Webster's Dictionary must be used for the correct spelling of the words. All slogans not to exceed five words and must be new and original. The blank below must be used when sending in the answer, sealed in an envelope.

All answers must be in not later than Wednesday noon, 12:00 o'clock. The contest editor has selected 12 words which he has intentionally misspelled. Only one word for each week is recognized.

In the event of a tie for any prize offered, a prize identical in all respects to that tied for, will be given to the tieing contestant.

Eight prizes are offered: $20.00 first prize, $10.00 second prize, $7.50 third prize, $5.00 fourth prize, $3.00 fifth prize, $2.00 sixth prize, [illegible] seventh prize, [illegible] slogan prize.

Contestants must turn in answer blanks for each of the 12 weeks.

The misspelled word for today has ten letters.

Now get busy, put your spelling ability to the test. You will thoroughly enjoy the task.

In awarding of prizes the answers in the misspelled contest and the best slogans submitted will be considered together.

For Sale or Trade—House Car on International Truck. In perfect condition.

How the Bank Serves the Merchant

THE BANK is the merchant's right-hand assistant because it facilitates his commercial transactions and stamps him as a reliable man to deal with.

Wholesale business houses dealing with the local merchant have full confidence in him if he is known to the bank.

The merchant sells for cash, and deposits his daily receipts in the bank's burglar-proof vaults. The merchant buys on credit established by his bank account or borrows from the bank when he needs financial assistance.

The Bank is the Merchant's friend. If you haven't an account with us we shall be pleased to tell you more about our service.

EPWORTH LEAGUE SERVICE AT METHODIST CHURCH

[illegible] Jesus expects of you." Mark 10:34-39.

There are two things that Jesus expects of those who love him. One is to avoid evil and the other is to do good.

When we repent of our sins Jesus will forgive us and cleanse our hearts from evil, but a empty heart is as useless as an empty house. "Be filled with the Spirit" is as necessary as "Repent."

This does not mean if we are Christians that life will be easy because Satan is more concerned in causing a Christian to go wrong then he is in the deeds of evil persons. Bad people are already under his control.

Jesus expects his children to be true to the right, no matter what the suffering or disgrace that Satan may cause them to udergo. It may be in the form of financial loss or a friend may betray our confidence and become our enemy. Others, through jealousy may slander us, even going so far as to turn our good deeds into evil.

Another thing that Jesus expects of his children is in reference to prayer. There are some requests that even Jesus canot grant. A "No" is as much an aswer to a prayer as a "Yes." If we shall ask anything in my name I will do it." James' their own name andrdletnoshrdluno and John's requests were asked in their own names and for their own sake. It was a request that they be appointed to the highest offices in Christ's Kingdom when he should become the earthly king of Israel as a direct descendant of David. "Ye know not what ye ask," because they had in mind an earthly kingdom. They did not understand that Jesus was to be king of hearts not of nations.

Jesus expects our hearts to be guided by the Holy Spirit, the still small voice" of God speakig to our souls. No one but ourselves can hear that voice as he speaks to us. It is because our personal responsibility in obeying the voice that we have religious liberty in this country. Jesus expects us to use this liberty for his glory and not for our own. "Personal liberty" as set forth in the word of God is a liberty to worship God. The religious liberty guaranteed us by the Constitution of the United States is a liberty to worship God, not ourselves; to worship God, not an idol; to worship God not some one else. The Holy Spirit should guide us in our home life, our social life our business life ,and our political life, as well as in our religious life. In fact our religion, whatever it may be is the guiding power in all departments of life.

WIS.-MINN. ASSOCIATION HOLDS GOOD MEETING

The Wisconsin and Minnesota people met in regular session March 15, at the Odd Fellow hall. The president, Mr. Severn, called the meeting to order at the usual hour. Song, "Swallows" by Mrs. Ford. Music by Mrs. Liggitt.

Poem by Mr. Campbell, "What Not To Eat."

The rest of the program varied from the one usually given, as each person was asked to tell in what state they was born how long they had lived in St. Cloud, and where they were located here. It was quite interesting to hear the responses as one after another told their birthplace, and some told of happenings in the "dim long ago." One lady was born in Minnesota when it was "wild and wooly" and the wolves would howl around their dwelling o'nights and one lady actually told the year of her birth—very unusual.

A rising vote of thanks was given Mrs. Boot for presenting the Association with Mr. Peck's picture, to be hung in the hall. Mr. Peck was father of Ex-Governor Peck of Wisconsin.

The next meeting will be April 19. A picnic dinner at the new boat house. Mrs. DeGraw and Mrs. Hearn will have charge of the program.

Meeting closed by singing "Star Spangled Banner."

EMMA HEARN, Secy.

OBITUARY

Mrs. J. D. BUCKBEE

Virginia A. Buckbee was born October 14, 1859 in Albany, Mo., and joined the Methodist Church in early life, continuing an active member and diligent worker in that church until failing health forced her to give up her cherished duties. She was joined in wedlock to J. D. Buckbee on December 2, 1897. They moved to St. Cloud on August 15, 1912, and made a host of friends here who mourn her death. She left, besides a husband three and one brother.

Mrs. Buckbee passed away in St. Cloud on March 5, and was buried at Mt. Peace Cemetery on March 7th, Eiselstein Bros., being in charge of the burial.

WHY SUFFER SO?

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing urinary ills? St. Cloud people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Could you ask for stronger proof of merit?

Sam Milburn, ret'd. carpenter, Massachusetts avenue., St. Cloud, says: "I served four years in the Civil War and the poor drinking water and bad food put my kidneys in bad condition. Colds settled on my kidneys and I had attacks of kidney complaint. At times I couldn't get out of a chair without bracing my arms on the chair, such terrible pains took me in the small of my back. My kidneys acted frequently, getting me up during the night and the secretions were highly colored. I had severe pains in the back of my head. I used Doan's Kidney Pills bought at Edwards Drug Store and they quickly rid me of the backache and regulated my kidneys."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Milburn had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

L. L. MITCHELL RELIEF CORPS

L. L. Mitchell Relief Corps met in regular session March 8th, at 2 p. m. with President Mary G. Brown in the chair.

Fourteen officers were present at roll call.

Two applications for membership were presented and usual committee appointed by the president.

General National Orders No. 4 were read by the secretary.

The Womans Relief Corp will be forty years old on July 25th. Lets celebrate.

The birthday party for members of our order will take place on March 29th. All members whose birthdays are in January, February and March will be the guests of honor and those whose birthdays occur in the last six months of the year will be the servants.

Fifty four members and visitors present.

ELECTION PROCLAMATION

By virtue of the power vested in me as Mayor under the charter and ordinances of the City of St. Cloud, Florida, I, S. W. Porter, do hereby announce and proclaim that on the 27th day of March, A. D. 1923, at the voting place in the city hall, there will be held an election for the purpose of electing the following officers: A Mayor to serve until his successor is elected and qualified at the regular election in 1924; a Treasurer to serve until his successor is elected and qualified in 1925; a Sanitary Inspector to serve until his successor is elected and qualified in 1925; a Superintendent of Streets to serve until his successor is elected and qualified in 1925; a Bond Trustee to serve until his successor is elected and qualified in 1926.

In compliance with Section 139 of the Revised Ordinances of the City of St. Cloud, Florida, I do hereby proclaim that those electors and only those electors shall be qualified to vote in said election who are duly qualified, which qualifications are that they shall have resided in the State of Florida for one year and in the City of St. Cloud for six months; that they are duly registered as electors in the city registration book, and that they shall have paid their poll tax on or before the 3rd day of March, for the years A. D. 1921 and 1922, where such electors are not exempt from poll tax requirements.

The polls will be open at eight o'clock in the morning and will remain open until five-thirty o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving votes but the inspectors and clerk may adjourn between twelve and one o'clock for one-half hour in compliance with Section 142 of the Revised Ordinances of said city.

In compliance with Section 132 of the Revised Ordinances of said city, I hereby direct the City Clerk to furnish to the inspectors of the election a list of the duly qualified electors to vote in the said general election.

In compliance with Section 132 of the Revised Ordinances of said city, I hereby appoint Calvin Parker and C. F. Coyle, as Inspectors, and G. C. Outlaw as Clerk of said election and the ballots used shall be substantially the same as used in the elections under the present laws of Florida.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand as Mayor of said City and caused the seal of the City of St. Cloud, Florida, to be hereto affixed.

Witness my hand this 24th day of February, A. D. 1923.

GREAT THINGS ACCOMPLISHED BY CITY COUNCIL

We have been asked to review the [illegible] things accomplished by the present city council and in going over the record we find they have been true to their pre-election promises and their names will SOON go down in history as the most economical, moneysaving tax reducing council in the history of the town.

Notwithstanding their slogan of "vote for us and lower taxes" they have not only raised the tax levy about FIFTEEN PER CENT, but the valuations have been greatly increased except on a few old faithfuls and the land companies. In connection with this they have recently accepted in payment for land company taxes about ONE THIRD OF TAXES ASSESSED in FULL PAYMENT for their taxes. Where do the "dear peepul" come in on this?

About the biggest slice of saving was cut from the laboring employees of the city when the most skilled mechanics were give a 20 per cent cut in wages, because they had not been "loyal" to the powers that be. Yes, and part of the council came in for a reduction, though the faithful still hung on to the old scale. We find from the record that the Assessor and the Clerk came in for a reduction immediately after election, the cut being about 20 per cent in both cases. That was all right of course because neither of them have anything to do but look wise. But the Mayor gets a slice of 100 per cent ADDED to his salary because he had so much to do. Only recently it was discovered that it was illegal to reduce the salary of the assessor during his term of office but it was legal of course to reduce the clerk and raise the mayor. Great Guns! Yes, and they decided to put the salary of the assessor back to the old schedule and paid the difference back to the time of his taking office. But the poor old mayor has to go on burdened by being forced to accept a 100 per cent illegal raise, and the clerk, being too modest to do otherwise, accepts what they give him.

More than a year ago the property owners on New York avenue petitioned to have that street paved from the post office to the next corner and signified their willingness to pay the entire cost of the same. This progressive council has so far refused to grant them a much needed improvement and for which they were willing to pay every cent of the cost. They were asked to put up the money in advance for the improvement which of course they refused to do, not knowing what disposition would be made of their money. The same thing applied to Tenth street from Florida to Indiana avenue. How in the world can we build a town with such officers at the helm?

The price of borrowing money has greatly increased since the coming of these wise men. For the privilege of borrowing money they took a disputed claim out of court and paid it, the amount being more than $500.

We were promised interest would be required on all city funds deposited in the bank. We have made diligent search and inquiry and so far have been unable to locate any funds for interest being turned into the city treasury. This was put out as a vote getter and it worked so well probably it will work again, but how about the interest—what became of it?

Not many moons ago it was decided that some business men of the city near the postoffice should be cut off from their places of business so an ordinance was passed prohibiting parking in front of their own places of business. But it is all right for a patent medicine man to move his house in the street in front of the postoffice and congest the streets for several days. Most of us are of the opinion that this ordinance was passed at the instigation of competitors in business. Moral: "Move your house in the street."

Among other political debts that had to be paid was drawing in the fire limits so that faithful workers could build according to their own notions.

Several hundred bales of new hay put up by former Superintendent of Streets for [illegible] and put on the streets; and hay shipped in from northern points bought at high prices. Hundreds of loads of sand have been hauled from private property and put on the streets most of the streets being the highest points in town.

Sanitary conditions have had the least attention and our streets are in worse condition than they have been for years. We have a Treasure in fact as promised.

We find that at least half a mile of MAIN SEWER line is stopped up with sand and property owners on this line are told that they cannot connect with this line but that they must construct septic tanks at their own expenses which cannot be done for less than ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS each in most cases. Ordinances require that persons living within 200 feet of sewer lines must connect with the same. These people are paying on the bond issue for these sewers yet are denied the use of them.

For years past these fellows clamored for reports of the condition of the city's finances. 'What became of the money' was their main cry. Since they have been in office no report has been made of the financial condition of the city. What becomes of our taxes? Why not have a report occasionally, such as they demanded before election?

The top of their accomplishments has only been scratched, but in summing up the affairs for the past two years we are forced to the conclusion that a change is needed, and that almost any change could not be any worse. Any change has possibilities of being better. There being a number of new men as candidates for the various offices, lets give some of them a chance, and let the old ones think it over.

MILLSOM MAKES FINAL STATEMENT TO VOTERS

(Paid Political Advertisement)

To the Voters of St. Cloud:

In making this final statement before the election next Tuesday I wish to state that if elected mayor I shall endeavor to give you a good clean, economical administration. We should have better police protection and law enforcement which I believe we can have without additional expense to the city. Our water system can be improved without the issuance of bonds and I shall endeavor to have the present unpleasant and distasteful condition of the city water removed or at least know the reason for this condition. I believe our system of sewers should be improved and they and the septic tank should be examined with the idea of removing any defects so that our city may enjoy better health conditions. The sanitary condition of the city was made a topic for the chamber of commerce and their report of unsanitary conditions called for some action. I heartily favor paving and such improvements as can be made without being burdensome to the city. Paving can be done upon request or petition of proerty owners who are willing to bear their share of the cost and which is no burden on the city treasury. There are a number of things that should be mentioned that would be for the improvement of the city but I can not enumerate them in this article. I promise you an economical, business-like, administration, if elected, as I cannot afford any other kind, being the owner of quite a bit of property in the city.

Yours for business,
W. H. MILLSOM.

NO INTEREST ON DEPOSITS BECAUSE MONEY KEPT BUSY

Mr. G. P. Arrowsmith, candidate for re-election as City Treasurer asks the Tribune to tell the voters why no interest had been received on city deposits during his term of office, he having promised voters two years ago that he would require interest on all city deposits if elected.

Mr Arrowsmith states that at no time have the city deposits aggregated to an amount to compel the depository to pay interest on deposits, the city money has been kept working from month to month and not left in any bank on deposit for a period long enough to secure interest.

Many old bills were paid and interest thereon stopped. All new bills paid promptly and discounts taken. Payment of all local expenses have been met promptly. Treasury at present is in good condition.
